

DOING RESEARCH IN EXTREME CONTEXTS: WHAT CAN BE LEARNED?

PROGRAM

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19

9:00 - 9:30 Welcoming coffee

9:30 - 11:00 Plenary session: Guest speaker Silvia Gherardi (University of Trento)
“Reading extreme context with Elias Canetti’s Crowds and Power”

11:00 - 11:30 Coffee Break

11:30-13:00 Parallel paper sessions

Parallel 1: Learning from disruptive contexts
Chair: Florence Allard Poesi

Helge Renå (University of Bergen) & Johan Christensen (Leiden University)
“Learning from crisis: The role of inquiry commissions”

Nicolas Dechy, Joël Garron, Brigitte Le Guilcher, Daniel Tasset, IRSN (Institut de Radioprotection et de Sûreté Nucléaire)
“After Fukushima, the human actions feasibility and minimum staffing to manage extreme situations on a nuclear power plant”

Frédéric Gautier (IAE Paris Sorbonne)
“Active agency of caregivers after Nice terrorist attack: a strong structuration perspective”

Parallel 2: Learning from crisis
Chair: Markus Hällgren

Femke Mulder (VU University Amsterdam)
“Network power in disaster knowledge practices: the politics of artefacts and the humanitarian data subaltern”.

Matthias Max & Dominik Semet (German Red Cross Headquarters)
“The German Red Cross organizational response to socio-economic change”

Ella Németh Bongers (Université Paris Nanterre)
“The small crack and the big crash. What can be learned from organizational daily micro-ruptures for the management of extreme situations?”

13:00-14:00 Lunch

14:00-16:00 Plenary session: Leading and organizing in extreme contexts
Chair: Linda Rouleau

Amy Hanson (Chapman University) & Sharon Segrest (University of South Florida)
"Researching Careers in Extreme Situations: Syrian Refugee Boot Camps"

Florence Allard Poesi (Université Paris-Est, IRG)
"Performing Leadership « In-Between » Earth and Sky"

Sylvain Lenfle (CNAM)
"Project management in extreme context: the Manhattan case"

Eric Pezet (Université Paris Nanterre)
"Extreme contexts: a foucauldian approach"

16:00-16:30 Coffee Break

16:30-17:30 Parallel paper sessions

Parallel 1: Skilful performance and resilience in risky contexts
Chair: Frédéric Gautier

Anne Gillet (Cnam-Lise-CNRS) & Diane-Gabrielle Tremblay (Téluq, Crises).
"Professional practices of safety-security of Cabin Crew: Application of Rules, Personal Qualities and Collective Actions"

Racha Lamari (Université Paris Nanterre)
"Resilience of Healthcare Teams and Coordination Mechanisms"

Parallel 2: Learning from risky contexts: exploring tensions and paradoxes
Chair: Marc Lassagne

Monique Aubry (UQAM)
"More than Organizational Ambidexterity: Organic Multi-dexterity"

Caroline Mellet (Université Paris Nanterre), Geneviève Musca (Université Paris Nanterre), Linda Rouleau (HEC Montréal), Frédérique Sitri (Université Paris Nanterre), Sarah de Vogué (Université Paris Nanterre)
"Examining the material constitution of paradoxes in the Darwin mountaineering expedition"

Diner

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20

Coffee

9:30-11:00 Plenary session: Annie Pye (University of Cardiff) Guest speaker
“Learning on the run: testing times in organization theory, practice and context »

11:00-11:30 Coffee Break

11:30-13:00 Parallel paper sessions
Parallel 1: How do we learn from extreme contexts: methodological challenges and opportunities
Chair: Geneviève Musca

Markus Hällgren (Umea University), Linda Rouleau (HEC Montréal)
« 35 years of research on extreme contexts: a methodological review »

Stéphanie Gagnon & Maud Michaud (ENAP Montréal)
« The intricacy of gaining and maintaining access in police organizations: lessons from the field »

Erna Danielsson & Jörgen Sparf (Mid Sweden University, Risk and Crisis Research Center)
“Producing knowledge about extreme situations”

Parallel 2: Learning from the extreme: new frameworks and perspectives
Chair: Eric Pezet

Marc Lassagne (ENSAM), Laurent Dehouck (ENS Rennes), Claire Edey Gamassou (UPEC)
“Behavioral insights and extreme contexts: what could be learned”

Synnøve Nesse (NHH Norwegian School of Economics)
“A Framework for Developing Organizational Crisis Leadership: A Review and Integration of Multiple Perspectives”

Benjamin Taupin (CNAM)
“Surfing beyond nature and culture: unfolding enskilment from extreme contexts”

13:00 - 14:00 Lunch

14:00–16:00 Plenary session: Roundtable chaired by Herve Laroche (ESCP), with:

Nicolas Dechy, IRSN (Institut de Radioprotection et de Sûreté Nucléaire)
David Pariente, Pitié Salpêtrière Hospital in Paris, Emergency Physician
Thierry Francq, Commissaire Général Adjoint, Commissariat Général à l’Investissement

16:00-16:30 Concluding remarks (Plenary)